Professional Summary

With 5+ years in SaaS and product-based hiring, I've built my career around one niche: finding and aligning the right technical talent through analytics, automation, and talent intelligence. I view recruitment as a strategic growth engine—one that shapes product roadmaps, accelerates teams, and strengthens culture.After a focused two-year sabbatical deepening my expertise in HR Analytics and AI in recruitment, I now help startups hire with clarity, precision, and purpose. My work blends data and empathy to create hiring decisions that drive long-term impact.
